SONGS

IN THE NEW

OPERA,

Call'd the

GROVE or LOVE's Paradise,

Compos'd by Mr. Dan: Purcell.

K

Sold by I: Walsh Musicall Instrument maker in Or= =dinary to his Majesty, at the Golden Harpe and Ho=boy, in Catherine=Street near Sommerset House in the Strand

Smithsonian Institution
BUREAU OF ETHNOLOGY

96
-01 9
61

Sung by the Boy in y^e^ Grove or Loves Paradise. Set by M^r^ D. Purcell.

Ye Birds that in our Forrests Sin---g, The Winds that Wanton with our Trees, ye Streams that mur---mur to forsake your Spring, be Silent be Silent ye out ra---gious Seas; attend attend y^e^ Rur---all

Song &c. Tis Love tis Love's y^e^ Theam, Tis Love tis Love's y^e^ Theam, tis He tis He our Lays employs, life of our Verse life of our Verse, & Monarch of our

Joys; with numbers Soft, Soft as their desires, with Words and Notes that Speak their fires; He warms He warms the Tune---full Throng He warms He warms y^e^ Tune---full throng.

Sung by Mr. Pate. in ye Grove or Loves Paradise. Set by Mr. D. Purcell

See See See, See See See,

See See See, See See See, the Trem ... bling Sheep re=

=vive re=vive; See See See, See See See, See See See, See See See, the Trem ... bling Sheep re=vive re vive; The Shep=herds Shep=herds, seem a gain ...

... to Love, the Shep=herds Shep=herds Seem a gain

... to Live, ye Shep=herds Shep=herds Seem a = gain ... to Live.

Southwick Sung by Mrs Erwin in ye Grove or Loves Paradise

Happy, happy, happy mansions plea sant Shades, happy, happy, happy mansions

plea sant Shades,

Seat of Inno-cence, of Inno-cence of In no cence & ease;

Gentle Shepherds, gentle Shepherds, gentle Shepherds, gentle Shepherds, tender, tender

Maids, sweet abodes of smile ing peace, ev'ry Grace &

Joy poss essing, welcome him, welcome him that gives ye blessing, ev'ry grace & Joy poss essing welcome, welcome, welcome him that gives ye blessing, welcome, welcome, welcome, him that gives ye blessing.

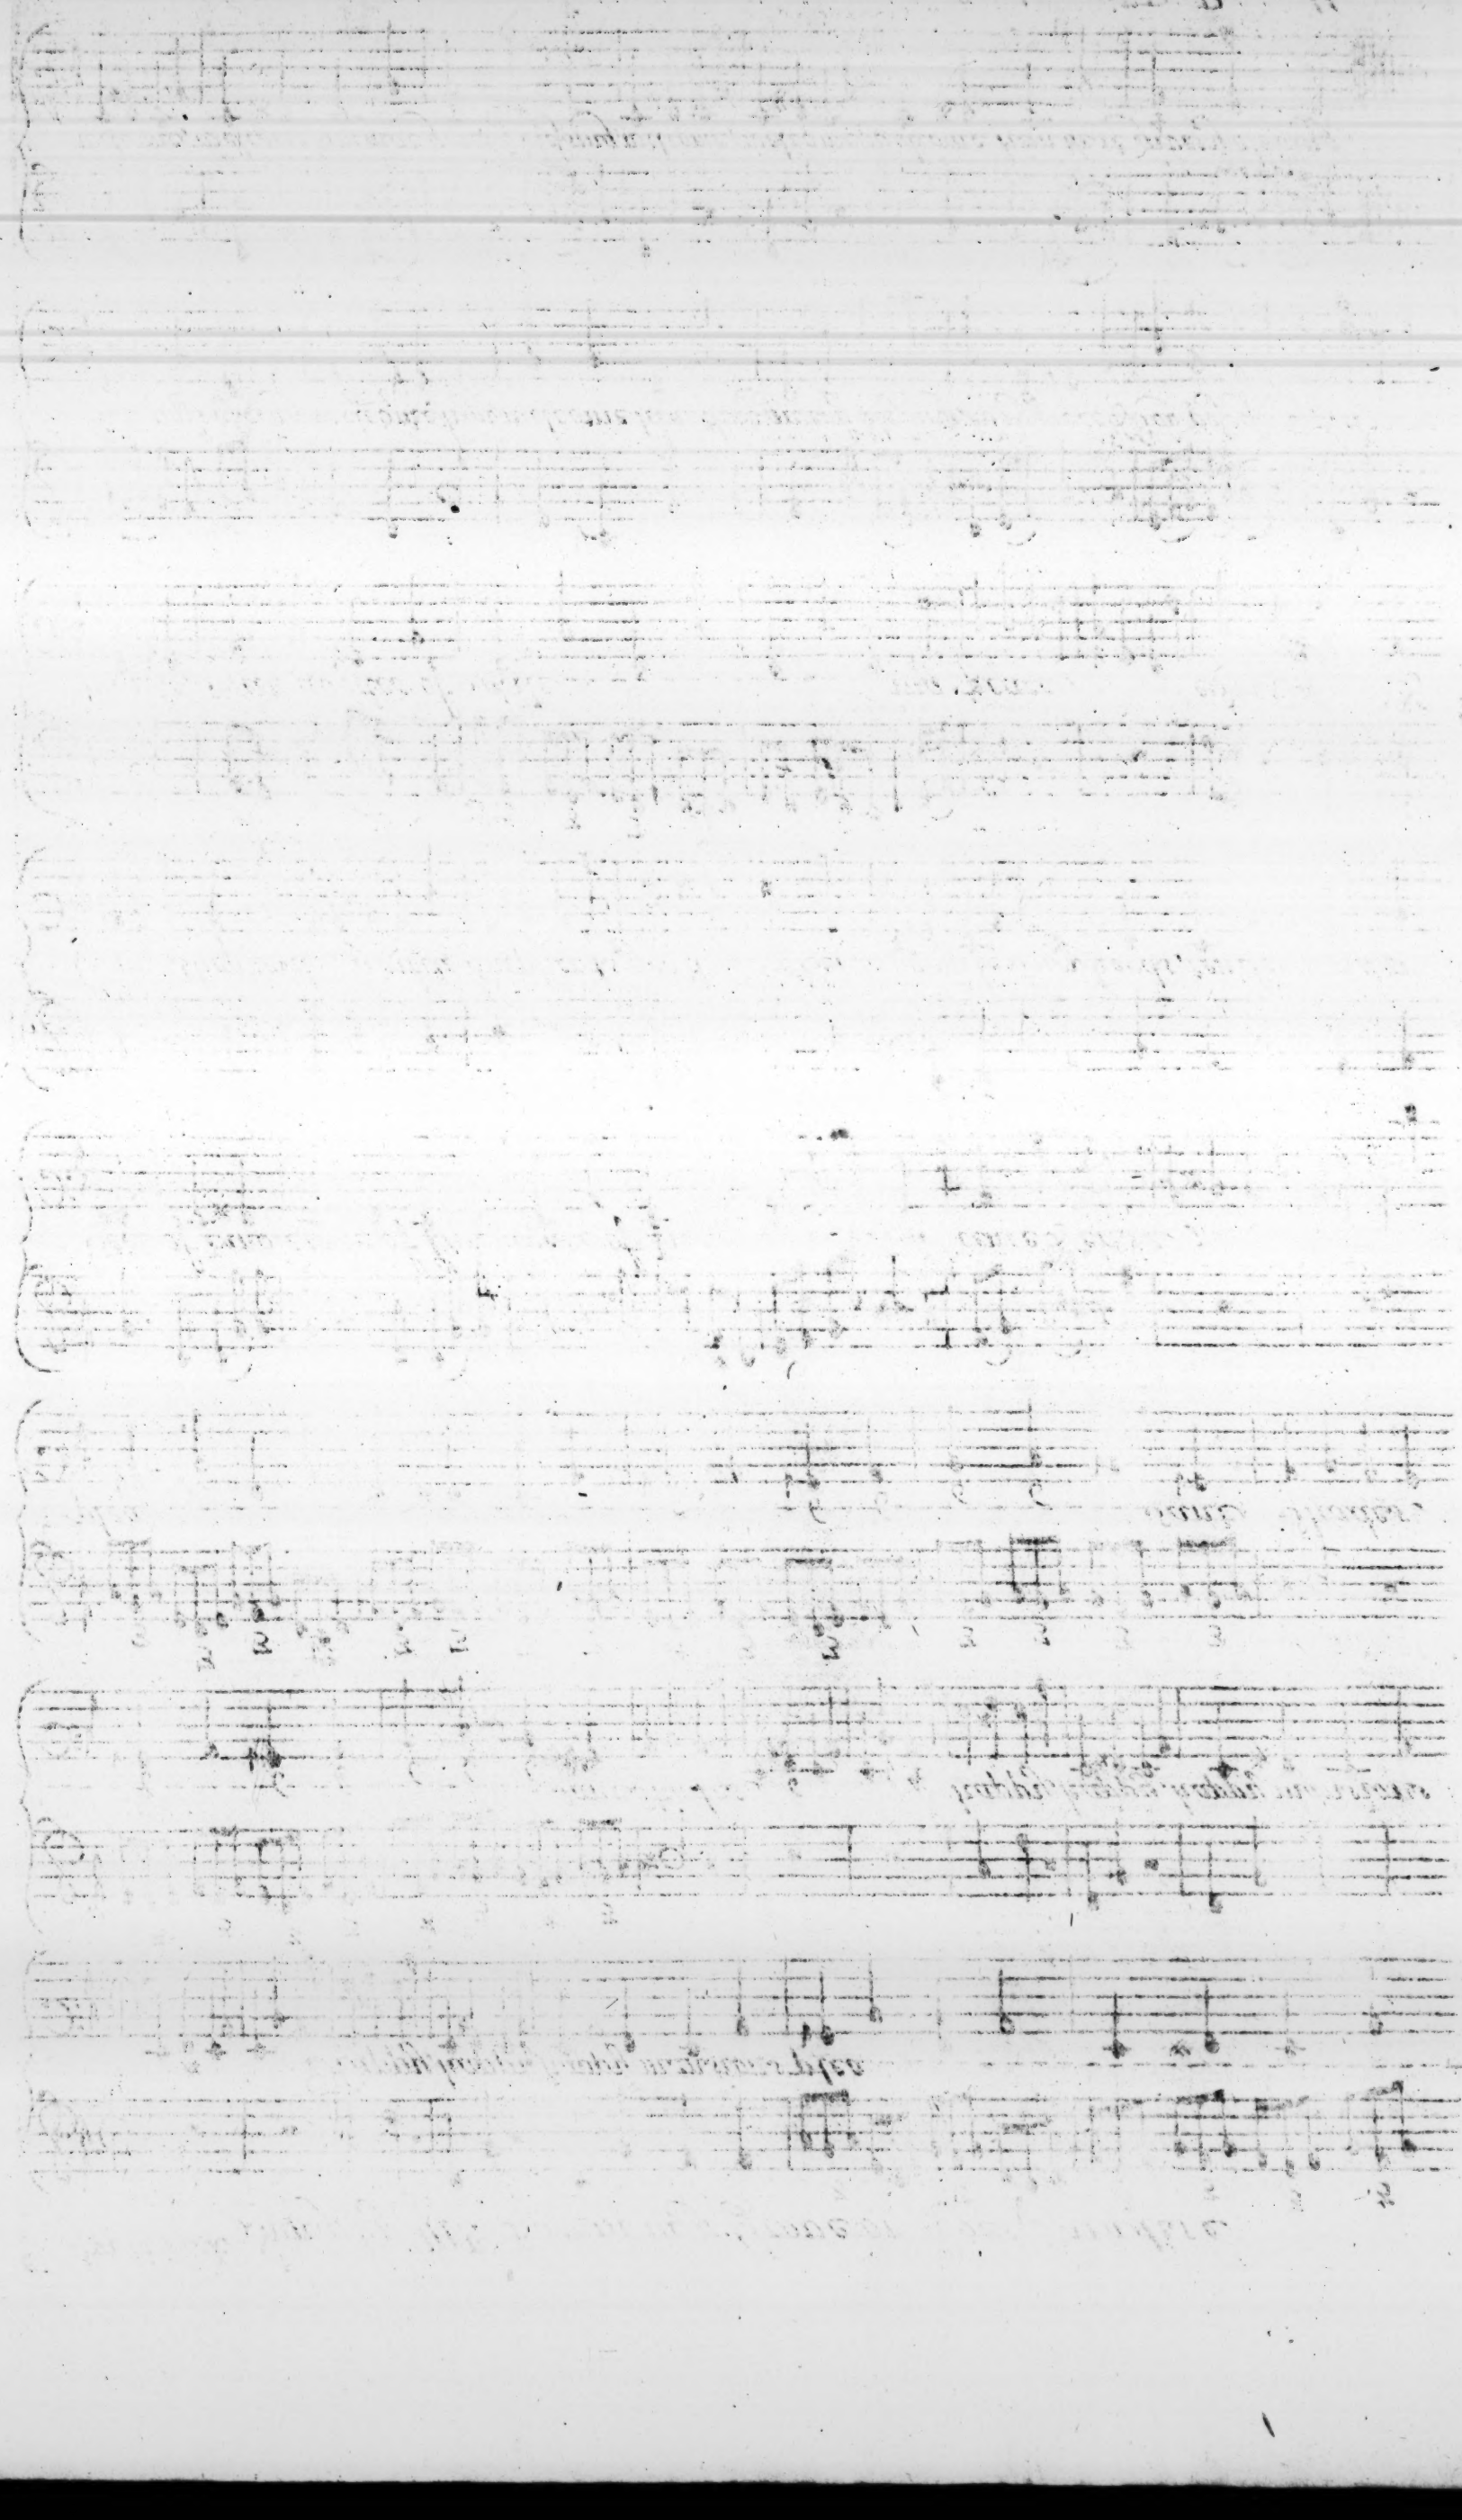
Set by Mr D: Purcell



Sung by Mrs: Ermin in yc Grove
or Loves Paradise

Cease cease your Amorous Pipes, and Flutes, the Trum- - - -

Sung by Mr Freeman in ye Grove or Loves Paradise. Set by Mr. D. Purcell

Come, come all away, you must not stay, come come & Sing come come & Sing

g. & Dan ce & Play, come come all away, you must not Stay, tis ye Shepherds tis ye Shepherds tis ye Shepherds Ho ly day, tis ye Shepherds, tis ye Shepherds, tis ye Shepherds Ho ly day.

Sung by Mr: Hues

Leave ye Mountain Vale, & home to ye Grove of Pleasure come; you need not feare ye Flocks will Stray, Pan protects em while you play; you need not fear your flocks will Stray, Pan protects em while you play.

A SONG in the New OPERA call'd the GROVE or LOVE's = PARADISE Sung by the Boy Set by Mr DANL PURCELL.

Happy ever, happy wee, could wee See, could wee See, Phi-lan-der free,

Love the best and Sweet-est care, is our only, is our only, Tor-ment here,

Happy ever, happy wee, could wee See, could wee See, Phi-lan-der free,

Love the best and Sweet-est care, is our only, is our only, tor-ment here,

Happy ever happy wee, could wee See, could wee See, Phi-lan-der free.

1 2

For the Flute

A SONG in the New OPERA call'd the GROVE or LOVE's = PARADISE Sung by Mrs LINSEY Set by Mr DANL PURCELL

Where, where's my Pan, my Lord, my Love, why flys _____ he from ỹ Sa=cred

Grove, why, why flys _____ he from his Ceres Arms, for mor tall Beauty, leave I'm _ mor_tall Charms, for mor___tall beauty, leave I'm mor _____

This Song in the same Act Sung by Mrs Linsey.

___ tall Charms. Ye men and maids who Cut the Ear, ye men and maids who Cut the

Ear, who bind ỹ boun _____ teous Sheaf, who reap ỹ Golden meads appear, appear a while yor

La _____ bour leave, appear, appear a while yor la _____ bour leave.

For the Flute

Sung by Mrs. Lindsey & Mr. Laroon in ye Grove

2 Voices

Plenty mirth & gay delights & gay ---------- de --- lights pleasant

Plenty mirth & gay delights & gay ---------- delights, pleasant days &

Days, pleasant days, pleasant days & gay ---------- delights, pleasant days & gay ---------- delights, pleasant Days, pleasant days, pleasant days & bliss full bliss full nights; All the Sweets, all all all the Sweets of Love & Peace, bliss full nights; All the Sweets, all the Sweets of Love & Peace,

Numerous flocks, nu ---------- merous flocks & large Increace, ever bless you

Numerous flocks, nu ---------- merous flocks & large Increase,

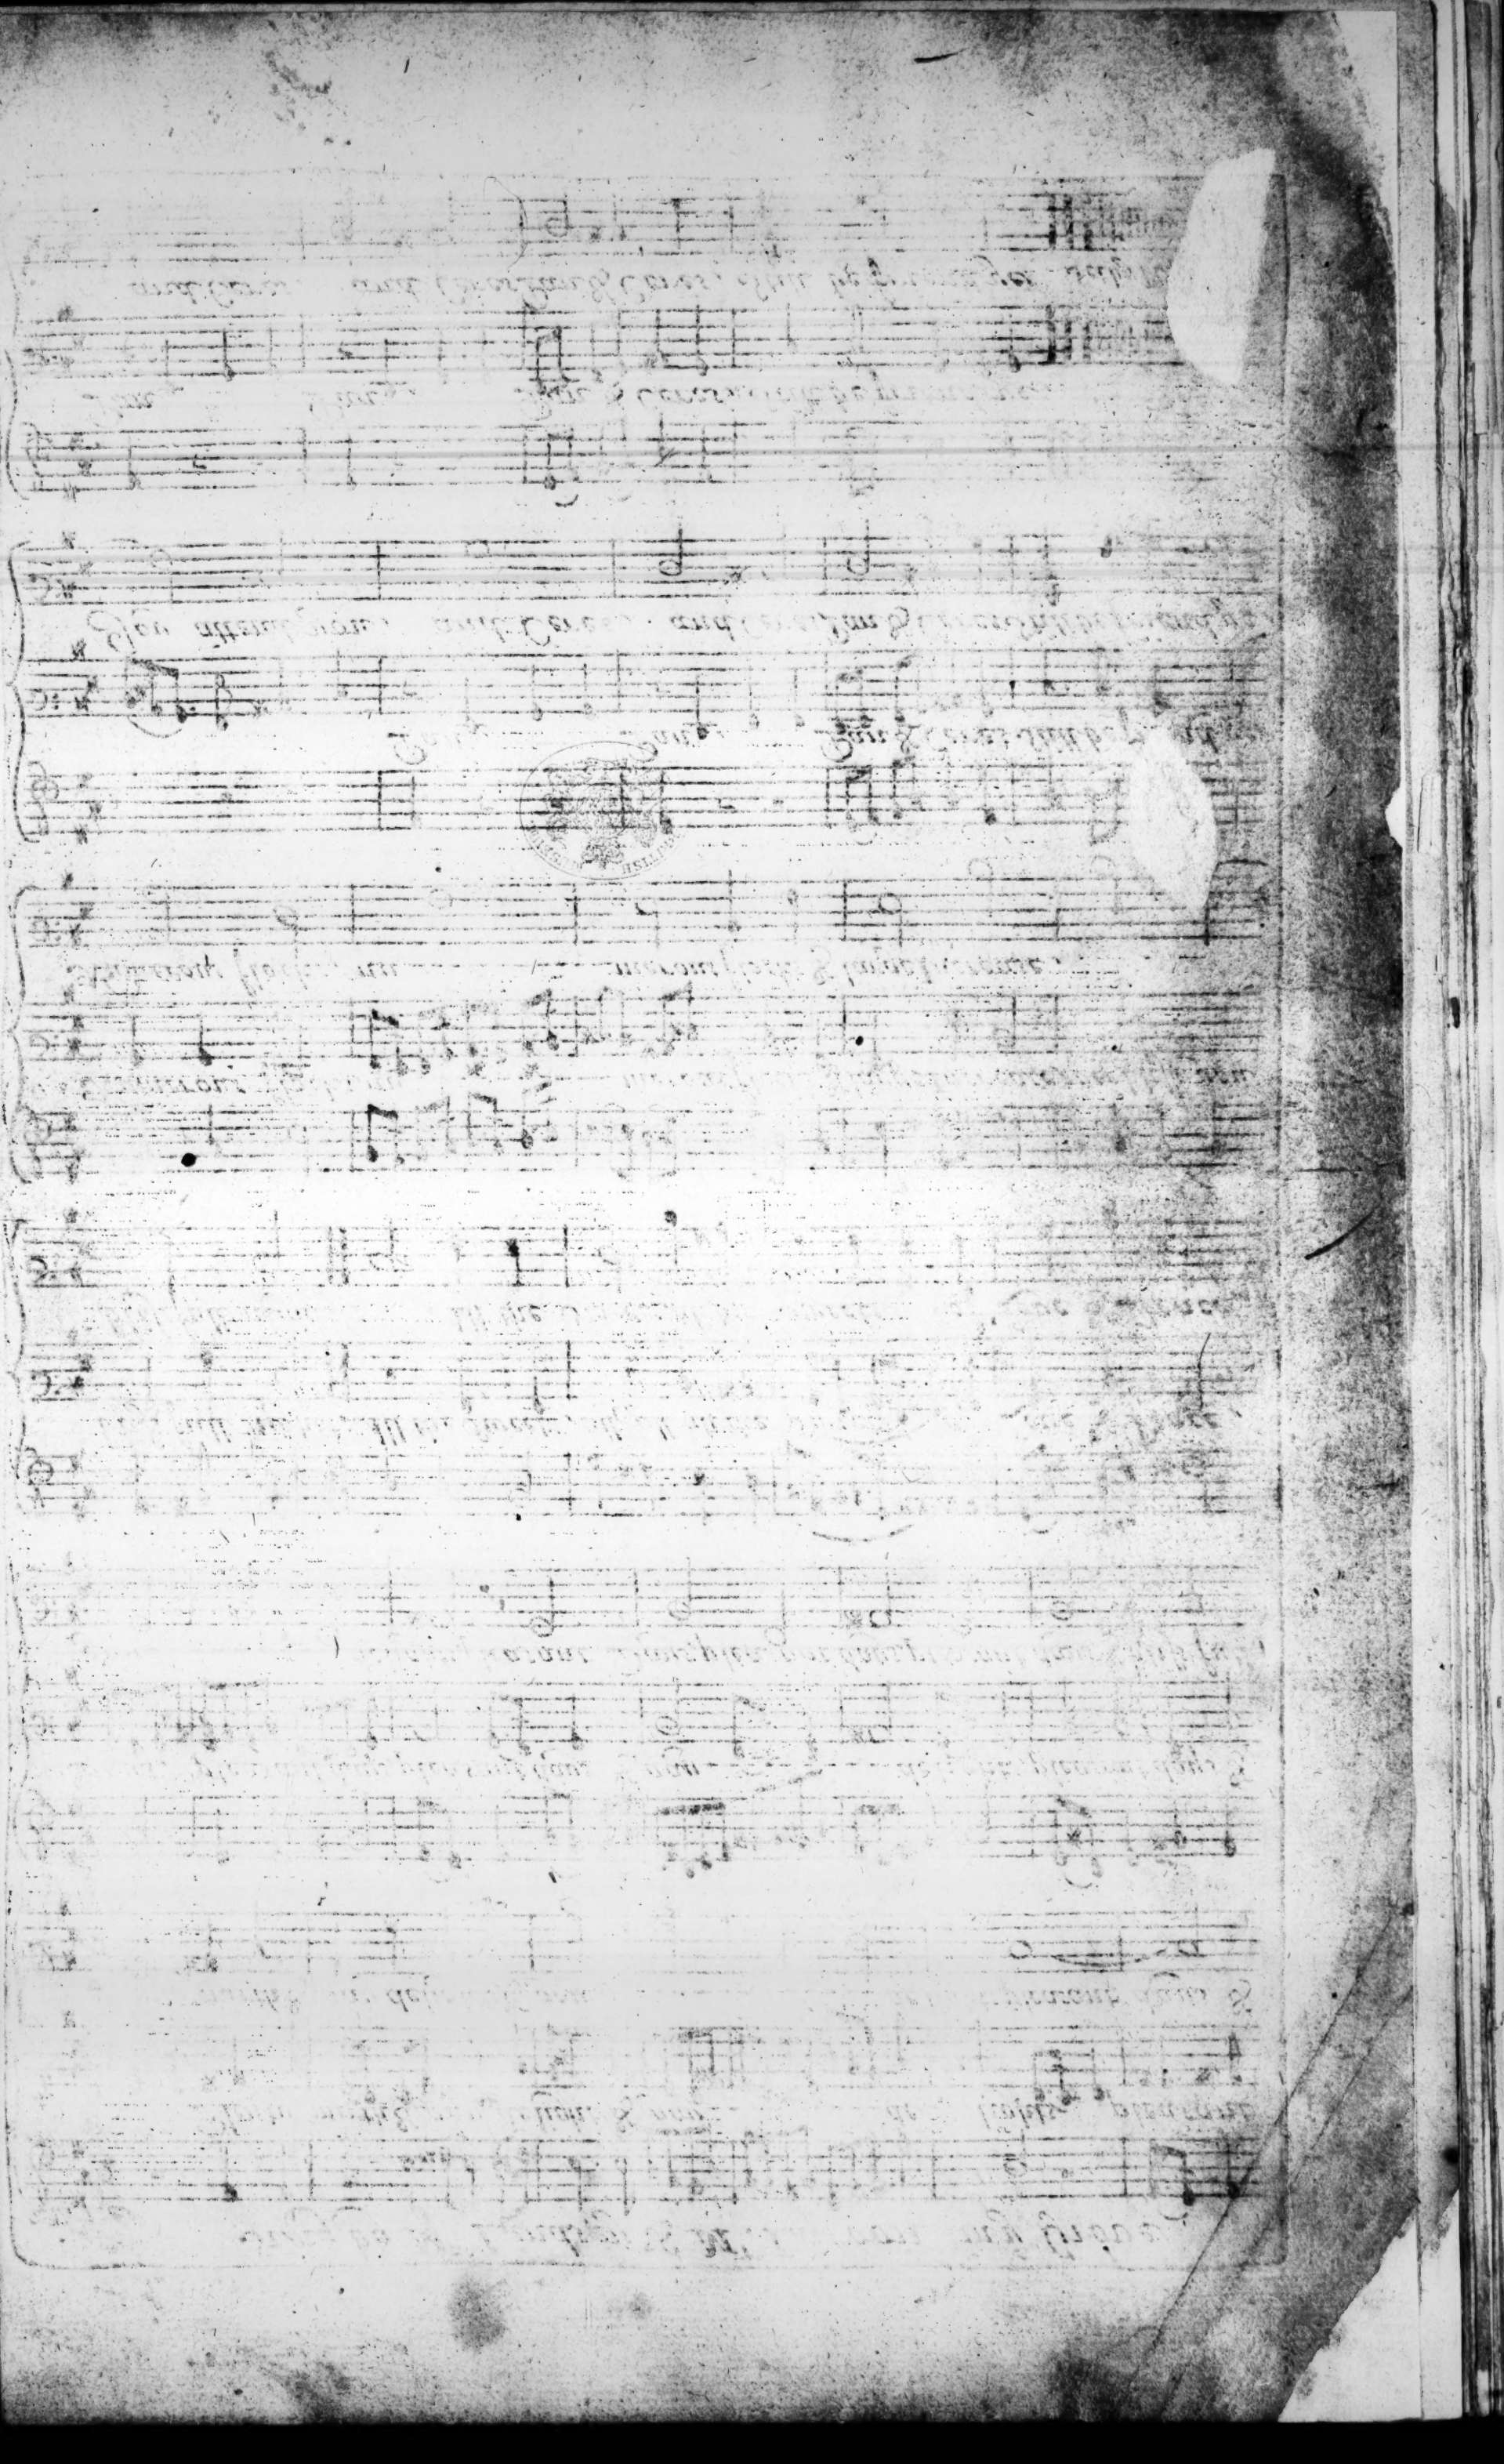
Pan, Pan, Pan & Ceres Still be friend ye,

Joy attend you, and Ceres, and Ceres, Pan & Ceres Still be friend ye,

Pan, Pan, Pan & Ceres, Still be friend ye,

and Ceres, and Ceres, Pan & Ceres, Still be friend ye

Set by Mr. D[illegible]rell



A SONG in the New OPERA call'd the GROVE or LOVE's PARADISE Sung by Mrs ERWIN Set by Mr DANL PURCELL

In vain you tell me Love is Sweet, and boast of its delights, I hear you talk of nothing, nothing, nothing yett but rest - less days and nights, for when you have your Love en-joy'd, you find the Bliss so small, you ei-ther think your Lov - - - - - - - - - er cloy'd, or that, or that you hant him all.

1 2

1 2

For the Flute

Sung by Mrs. Shaw in ye Grove or Loves Paradise. Set by Mr. D. Purcell

Under neath a gloo = my shade, by an ancient Popler made, while the Zephers round _____ her play, Cloris thus complain =

= ing lay, where shall I Phy-lander find, Eccho answers her behind;

Twice she turn'd & saw 'twas false, chiding Ecchos lying Tales, thus she mourn'd a gain & said, where is my Phy-lander fled, from his Flocks, his friends & me, when shall I my shepherd see, whether turn to find him out, Eccho answers Her about,